

Toco toucan

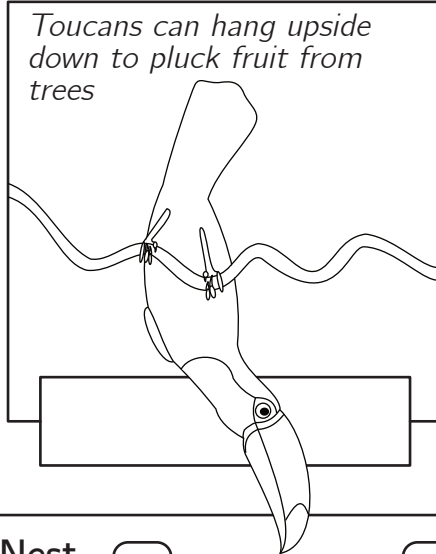

Ramphastos toco

FACT or FICTION?

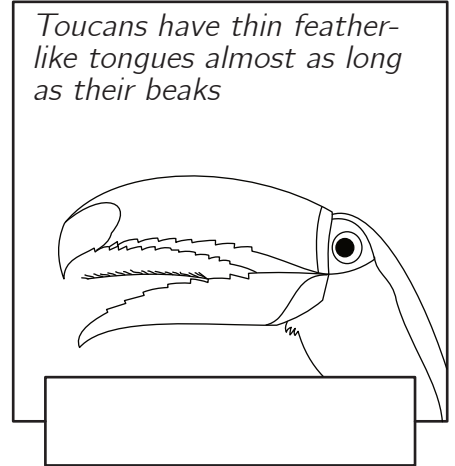

Female and male toucans look very different

Toucans can hang upside down to pluck fruit from trees

Toucans have thin feather-like tongues almost as long as their beaks

CHARACTERISTICS:

Diet

☐ Mostly Herbivorous

☐ Mostly Carnivorous

☐ Opportunists or omnivores

Nest

☐ Burrow

☐ Cavity

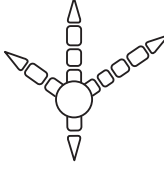

☐ Nest

☐ Mound

☐ Scrape

☐ Other

Feet

☐
Anisodactyl

☐
Zygodactyl

☐
Didactyl

Beak

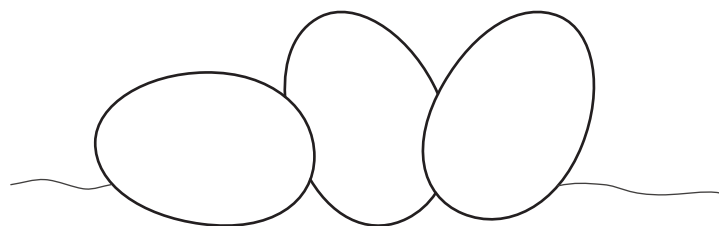

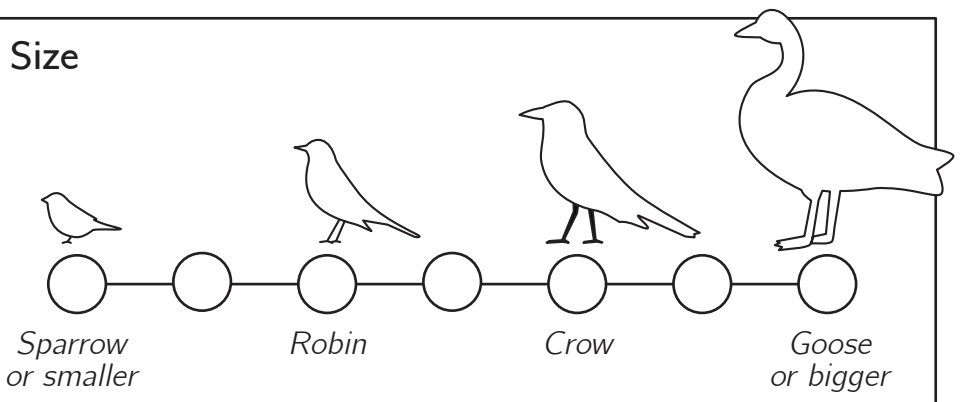

☐ Built for STRENGTH (can bite super hard)

☐ Built for REACH (can access food)

☐ Built for SHOW (attractive to others)

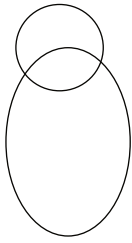

☐ Built for HEAT REGULATION

Size

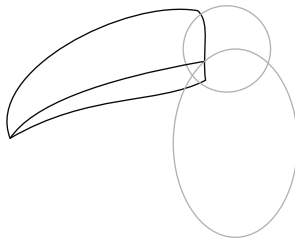

How to Draw a Toucan

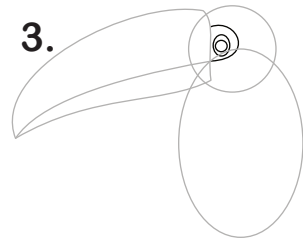

1.

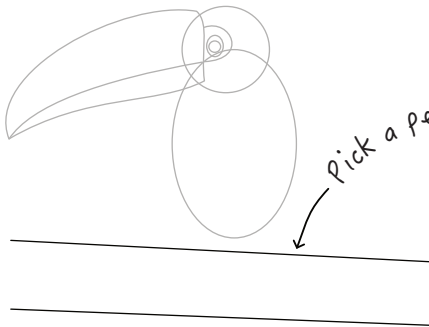

2.

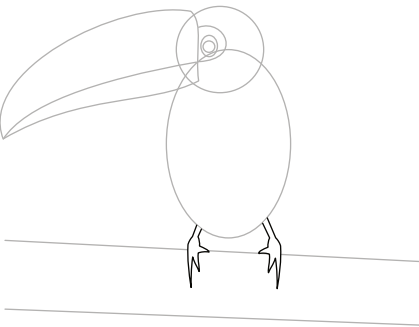

3.

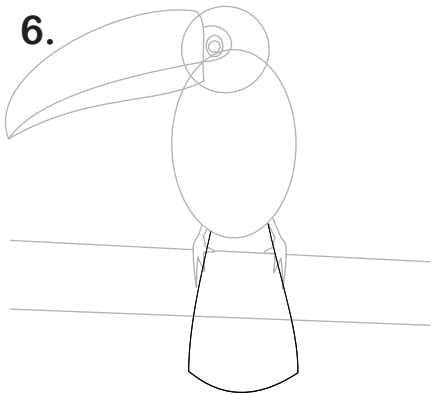

4.

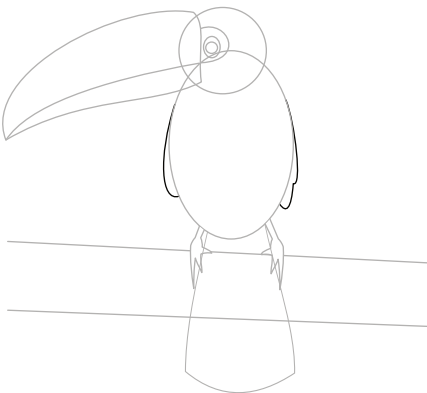

5.

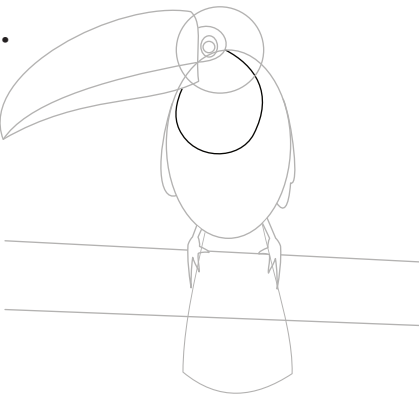

6.

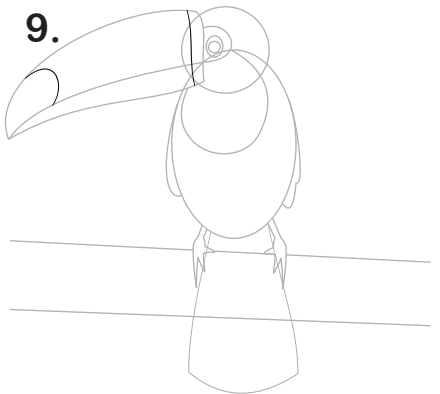

7.

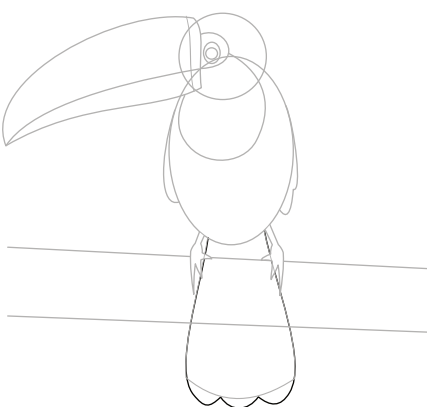

8.

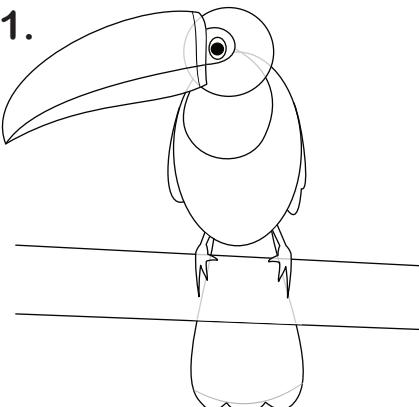

9.

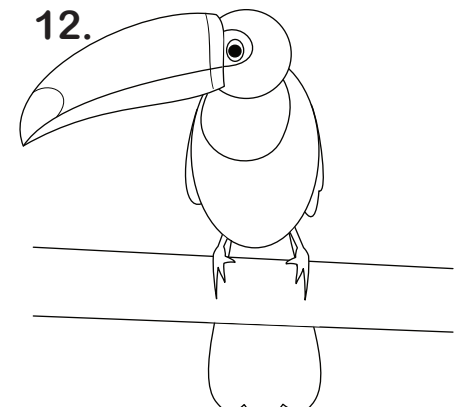

10.

11.

12.

outline with permanent marker
and erase the pencil lines!

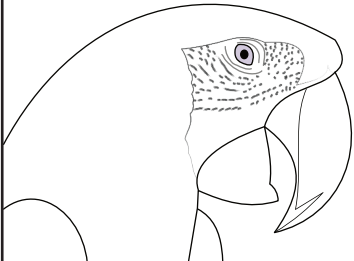

What toucan species will you draw?
A toco, emerald, keel-billed, choco,
yellow-throated, or something else?

Parrots

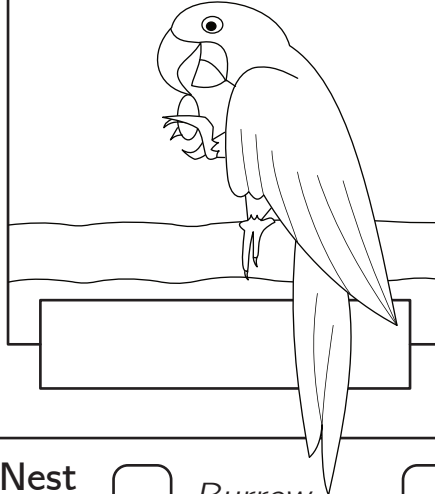

Psittaciformes

FACT or FICTION?

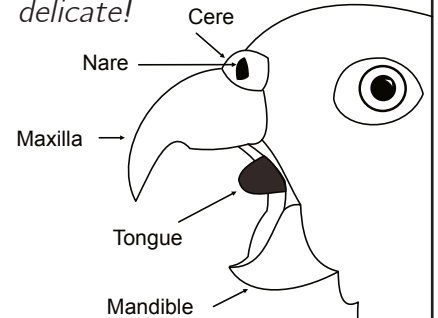

A macaw's facial feather pattern is thought to be as unique as a fingerprint

Parrots are the only birds that eat with their feet

Parrot beaks are very delicate!

CHARACTERISTICS:

Diet

☐ Mostly Herbivorous

☐ Mostly Carnivorous

☐ Opportunists or omnivores

Nest

☐ Burrow

☐ Cavity

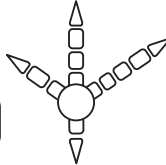

☐ Nest

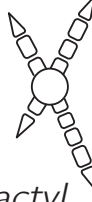

☐ Mound

☐ Scrape

☐ Other

Feet

☐
Anisodactyl

☐
Zygodactyl

☐
Didactyl

Intelligence

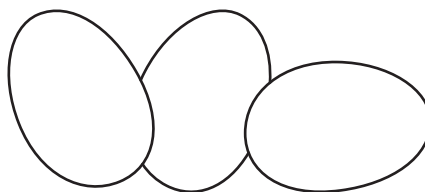

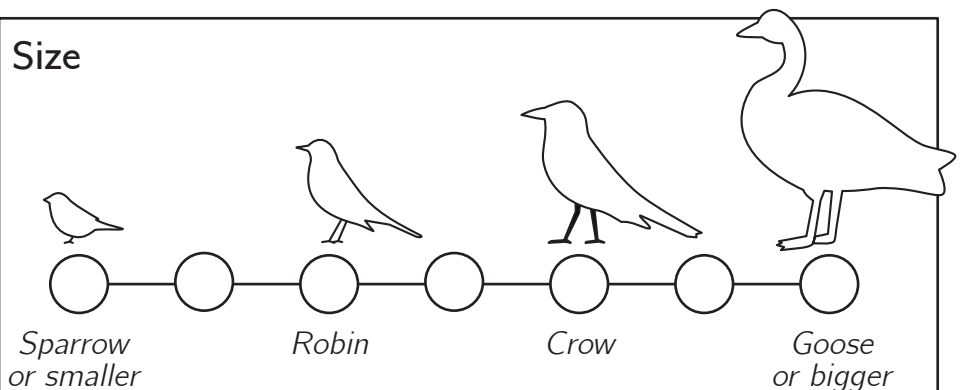

☐ Can tell stories and do basic math

☐ Can learn new languages

☐ Emotional intelligence

☐ Has a written language

Size

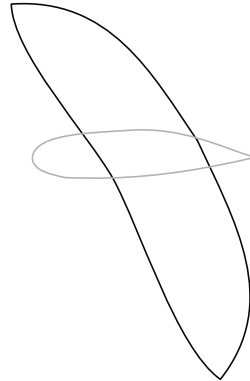

How to draw a Macaw

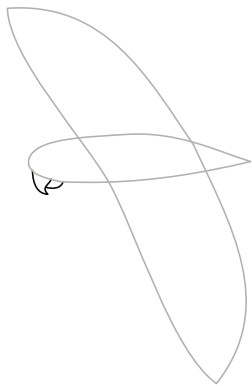

1.

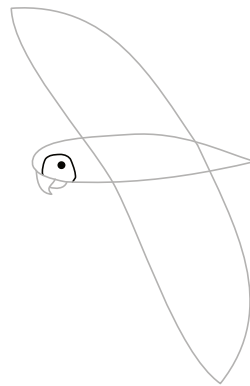

2.

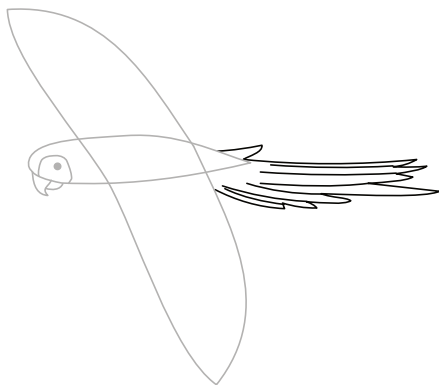

3.

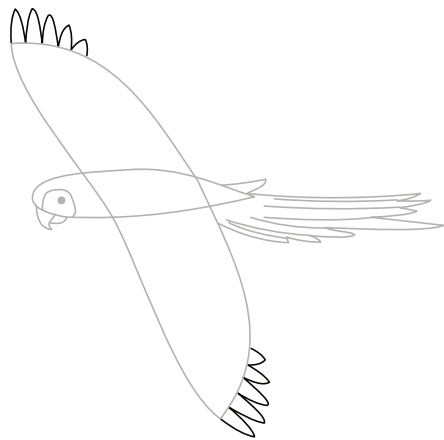

4.

5.

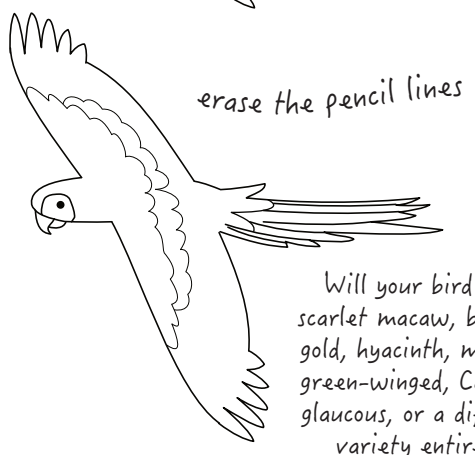

6.

7.

8.

Will your bird be a scarlet macaw, blue and
gold, hyacinth, military,
green-winged, Catalina,
glaucous, or a different
variety entirely?