

Challenge Problem 45: Grid Shading Puzzle

In this puzzle each square is to be shaded either gray or white. A few of the squares are shaded to get you started. The numbers along the side and top show the sequences of consecutive gray squares to be shaded in each row and column (with at least one white square between them). Shade the remaining squares to complete the puzzle.

